

Constella Hines-Zimmerman, PhD

Dr. Constella H. Zimmerman served as the Program Director for the Community Integrated Outreach Networks (ICON) for the US Army Research, Development and Engineering Center (RDEC) at the U.S. Army Communications-Electronics Command (CECOM), Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. In this capacity, Dr. Zimmerman provided guidance and assistance in executing the CECOM Community Outreach Programs. Dr. Zimmerman coordinated outreach programs with local Universities/Colleges, high schools, junior high schools and elementary schools. Additionally she was involved in leading meetings, training, counseling, managing budgets, and marketing/advertising.

She represented Team Fort Monmouth at local, regional and national meetings and she served on numerous planning committees to include the National Science Center and represented CECOM on the Executive Board of the Junior Science Symposium. Dr. Zimmerman has received numerous accolades from the Commanding General for her active work in the community and for her comprehensive outreach program. Dr. Zimmerman has also served as an adjunct professor at Morris College, Sumter S.C.

Dr. Zimmerman began her government service in 1975 with the Drug Enforcement Administration as a Diversion Investigator. She joined Fort Monmouth as an EEO manager and has also served as a personnel specialist. Subsequently, she entered the CECOM RD&E Center as a career program specialist where she served as the Community Outreach Program Director.

Dr. Zimmerman had a Bachelor's Degree in music from Benedict College (awarded 1970); a Master's Degree in Adult Education from the University of Virginia (awarded 1979); and a Doctorate degree in Administration and Supervision from Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, awarded in 1998.

She was a board member of the INFOAGE Learning Center from 2003 until 2006. She was a graduate of the Civilian Leadership Development Program and a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. She volunteered locally as a mentor at local schools and the Canaan Baptist Church. She and her husband James are the parents of a daughter and son.